Article (24)

In case there is an improvement in an invention whose certificate is given to another person, the innovator of such improvement shall not be allowed to invest the original invention. Similarly, the owner of the original invention shall not be allowed to benefit from the additional certificate given with the improvement made or discovered after the invention unless both parties agree thereto.

Article (25)

The additional certificates shall be dated as of the date of filing an application there for, and shall expire with the lapsed of the duration of the original certificate related to such certificates.

Article (26)

If a certain certificate is declared null and void because the invention for which it was given is not new, the additional certificates related thereto may remain valid, provided that the payment of annual installments of each certificate would continue, and the certificates shall remain in effect and valid throughout the period specified for the original certificate had it not been declared null and void.

Article (27)

Any holder of an additional certificate may at any time seek replacement of his certificate with an original one, provided he pays the difference in the fee for the current year. The duration of such new certificates shall be equal to that of the original certificate.

Article (28)

(Amended by Resolution No. 170, issued on 6 December 1937):

In order for the application for the additional certificate to be accepted it should be attached to at least the value of the first years installment. By this installment, it is meant the one corresponding to the current installment of the original certificate for that year. In case of applying for an additional certificate during the precedent year following giving the original certificate, this application shall be enclosed with an amount of 18 Lebanese Liras otherwise, if an application is submitted within the same year in which the original certificate is taken, fees estimated at 6 Lebanese liras shall be paid in advance(1) .

Chapter Four

Transfer, Assignment and Seizure of Certificates

Article (30)

The holder of a certificate may assign it totally or partially, in return for a price or for free, as well as of its whole ownership or for the right of usufruct only. He may also give it as a warranty, or offer it to a company...etc.

Article (31)

Any transfer or assignment shall be effected and executed in writing otherwise it is null and void. Likewise, if it is not recorded in the Protection Bureau, it shall be considered null and void towards every other person. Transfer of the certificate shall be entered in the competent register designated for this purpose at the Bureau upon the request of the transferee of the certificate within a period of three months from the date of transfer. Such entry shall include names and addresses of the persons interested in or concerned with this question, the number, dates and documents of the certificate, the type of assignment, and its duration and the date of the assignment deed concluded between the owner of the certificate and the assignee.

Article (32)

The striking off of the assignment shall be effected in the register mentioned in Article (31) pursuant to the submission of an official copy of a final verdict or a judicial writ, or according to an official deed of consent on the striking off from the creditor or any other beneficiary of such right.

Article (33)

(Amended by Resolution No. 170 issued on 6 December 1937):

Any person who asks the Bureau for a copy of the entries of assignment, cancellation of assignment, or a certificate that there are no assignment entries or cancellation of a certain certificate, may obtain it. The Bureau shall receive for the entry of an assignment or transfer of ownership, a fee of five Lebanese Liras, and a fee of two(1) Lebanese Liras for giving a copy of the assignment entry or assignment cancellation, or of the certificate proving the non-existence of an entry for a certain certificate.

Article (34)

(Amended by Article (4) of Law of 31 January 1946):

All registrations of assignment of the ownership of the patents of inventions or the hachuring thereof shall be published in the official gazette.

Article (35)

Whoever has a debt with the holder of a certificate of invention may seek the seizure thereof. The creditor shall submit to the Bureau a written objection against any assignment entry to be effected for the benefit of a third person. Such objection shall be attached to an official copy of the debt deed or the seizure order given by the judge of the domicile jurisdiction of the debtor or his representative in case the debtor is domiciled abroad

Article (36)

Notification to prove seizure which the creditor sends to the debtor shall have its effect on the assets of the public right

Article (37)

In case the seizure is proved, the court shall sell the certificate in a bidding unless the two parties agree otherwise. The new owner of the certificate who acquires it by bidding or by purchase shall request the entry of the bidding or the sale in the Bureaus register within a period of three months starting from the date of transfer of the certificates ownership, otherwise such transfer shall be considered null and void.

Article (38)

In case the request of entry of assignment of the certificate is made offer an objection is filed concerning that certificate, the Bureau shall make the requested entries which become valid and in effect unless seizure is proved. If any seizure is proved, the Bureau shall automatically strike off the assignment entries related to that certificate.

Article (39)

In case of additional certificates given after the assignment of the original certificate by the owner of the original certificate or the beneficiaries who have rights therein, the assignee shall legally become the beneficiary there from. Moreover, the owner of the original certificate or the beneficiaries who have rights thereto shall benefit from the additional certificates given to the assignee whenever the original certificate is returned to the assignor .

Chapter Five

Nullification and lapse of certificates

Article (40)

Any person who has interest in the matter shall have the right to raise a claim for the nullification or waiver of the certificates. Such claims shall be submitted to the Court of Commerce provided that provisions of resolutions Nos. 2028 and 2029 shall remain applicable. The public prosecution may always interfere in the matter for the issuance of a verdict with the nullification or full waiver of the certificate.

The Claim may also be directly raised, and the claim shall be fundamental in cases provided for in Article (43), paragraph (4), and Article (46), paragraph (1), to issue a verdict with nullification or waiver of the certificate. All those who have rights in the certificates and their deeds were registered in the Protection Bureau shall be involved in the claim.

Article (41)

The request for nullification or waiver of the certificate shall be investigated and determined as per the rulings and principles provided for in the Law of the Legal Principles for Prosecution and Trial. The attorney general shall always receive the claim documents in advance.

Article (42)

(Amended by Article (5) of the Law of 31 January 1946):

The Chief Clerk shall send a copy of each applicable verdict for implementation to the Protection Department, and the abstract of the verdict shall be published in the official gazette with the approval of the concerned person who shall pay the publication expenses.

Article (43)

The granted certificates shall be considered null and void:

- 1- If the invention is not new.
- 2- If it is not possible to give a certificate for the invention in the cases provided for in Article (3).
- 3- If the invention is related only to theoretical or scientific ways and methods which do not apply to a specific industry.
- 4- If the title under which the invention is presented deliberately indicts something else other than the invention itself.
- 5- If the description of the invention, its charts, plans and expense lists are insufficient to put the invention into operation.

The Additional certificates which are not related to the original certificate shall also be considered null and void .

Article (44)

(Amended by Article (11) of Law of 31 January 1946):

In order that the invention would be considered new, nothing should be published about such invention in Lebanon or abroad that enables the application thereof with the exception of the inventions which were given a guaranty certificates in exhibitions, provided that the international conventions contradictory to the invention and are applied in Lebanon, are taken into consideration.

Article (45)

(Inserted in Article (2) of Resolution No. 164, issued on 8 December 1938):

In case the holder of certificate does not pay the prescribed fee before the beginning of each year of the years of the term of his certificate, his rights to the certificate shall be forfeited. However, he shall be granted a time limit of six months to pay all arrears, but in such case he shall be required to pay another fee of three Lebanese Liras in addition to the original fee (1) .

Article (46)

(Amended by Article (12) of the Law of 31 January 1946):

The rights of the owner of the certificate shall also be forfeited:

- 1- If he brings to Lebanon, from foreign resources, items which are similar to the items protected by his certificate, without prejudice to the international conventions contradictory thereto and which are applicable in Lebanon.
- 2- If he fails to put his invention into operation and use within a two-years period, unless he proves that he has demonstrated and offered his invention directly to industrialists capable of implementing it, and that he has not refused without reason any licensing applications to implement it with reasonable conditions.

Article (47)

(Amended by Article (11) of the Law of 31 January 1946):

Special provisions shall be issued later whereby the terms and condition of the international protection of the certificates of patents of inventions applied in Lebanon, are set down and organized.

PART TWO
INDUSTRIAL DRAWINGS AND DESIGNS

Chapter One

General Provisions

Article (48)

Any inventor of a drawing or a design, or those who have rights thereto, shall alone have the right of usufruct thereto, and to sell, or offer it for sale, and to authorize its sale, provided that such drawing or design is, previously filed.

Article (49)

The Drawings and designs which contain the two advantages of being new and invented, that is, they include external characteristics to make them of special form which differentiates them from known drawings and designs may be filed.

Article (50)

Accordingly and on the basis of the specification mentioned in Article (49), it is possible to file the fabrics which contain illustrated or sewn paintings and illustrated and painted papers for wall decorations, and the new designs of caftans, coats, and hats for women and men, cosmetic accessories such as scrappers, sock holders, shoes, corsets, covers of flasks and flacons, bottles of wines and alcoholic drinks and beverages, and perfumes.... etc. cardboard packages and boxes used for pharmaceutical products, external wrapping of goods or of any other product... etc. The above-mentioned listing shall not prevent the possibility of filing other similar things which are not mentioned therein.

Article (51)

If the new design can be considered an invention entitled to a certificate, it shall be protected as per provisions of Article (1) to Article (48) of this Resolution. But if the elements which make such a design a new one can be separated from the invention itself, then the inventor may, upon his own request, benefit from both protections resulting from the certificate and the filing, provided that he pays the fees determined for each of these two processes.

Article (52)

Filing alone shall not give the right to ownership of a drawing or a design, but it ensures the person who files it the right to ownership consideration for himself, but the real ownership shall not be acquired except with the use of the drawings or designs.

Chapter Two

Filing, Dealings, Duration And Fees

Article (53)

(Supplemented by Article (10) of the Law of 31 January 1946):

The inventor of a drawing or design or his agent or official proxy shall send the filing application to the Director of the Protection Bureau. Such an application shall contain the following instructions, otherwise it is considered null and void:

- 1- Name, title, nationality and domicile of the inventor of the object required to be filed.
- 2- If necessary, the same information about the authorized agent or proxy shall be mentioned.
- 3- Number and type of the things needed to be filed, on condition this number does not exceed one hundred. Such things shall be numbered from 1 to 100.
- 4- The requested period of protection .
- 5- When necessary, things to be advertised for should be mentioned as per their serial numbers.

Article (54)

The following shall be attached to the application, otherwise it is considered null and void:

- 1- The value of fees specified in Articles (65) and (66).
- 2- When necessary, the agency agreement or power of attorney with which the agent or proxy is officially known.
- 3- Two designs or two copies of any thing required to be filed provided they contain the number of that thing.

4- Two copies of the particulars of each of the filed drawings or designs. Each of the particulars shall include a number as explained above, and signed by the person who is making the filing. Such particulars shall be written on a sheet of paper, the size of which shall be specified elsewhere. This sheet of paper shall include all necessary instructions about the thing, to which it is related, particularly if they are related to a design, the shape of which is enlarged or reduced. In such case, the scale of measurements used for that purpose should be shown.

5- Specimen of the stamp used for sealing the boxes in which the applicant put things requested to be filed with their particulars.

Article (55)

The legal measurements for boxes, designs and particulars stipulated for in Article (54) shall be specified in special instructions to be issued later. Provisions of these instructions shall be strictly observed, otherwise the application shall be considered null and void.

Article (56)

The Head of Protection Bureau shall enter the filing permit in a special register designated for that purpose, in which he shall mention the date, hour and serial number of the filing. The same instructions shall be shown on the sealed box submitted by the depositor.

Article (57)

As mentioned in Paragraph five of Article (53), the depositor or applicant shall have the right to ask for advertising all the things he filed or just a part thereof at the time of filing without paying an additional fee. He shall reserve this right during the first five years following the filing but in this case the request for advertising shall necessitate the payment of the fee specified in Article (66). As long as the depositor has not asked for advertising the things he filed, the secrecy of the filing shall be fully maintained.

Article (58)

The depositor who wants to advertise all or part of the things he filed, shall submit an application therewith to the Director of the Bureau, to be enclosed with a design of each of the things he wants to advertise. Then the Bureau Director shall open the sealed box and take the requested thing or things, confirm their similarity to the submitted design, stamp one of the two designs taken from the box, date it and give it to the depositor. As for the second design, the same explanations shall be notarized thereupon and kept at the Bureau, at the disposal of whoever wants to see them. The remaining things not to be advertised, shall be returned to the box which is sealed once again.

Article (59)

(Amended by Resolution No. 170, issued on 6 January 1937):

As mentioned in Article (58), the public may examine the copy of the published drawing or design kept at the Bureau free of charge, based on an application to be submitted to the Director of the Bureau. Otherwise, the depositor and the owners of rights related to them from him and any person proved to be involved in a judicial claim related to the published drawing or design, may obtain a photographic copy of this drawing or design, on paying its expenses and also a fee of two(1) Lebanese Liras.

Article (60)

If the advertisement for the filed things is not requested during the five years following the filing, the sealed box shall be put at the disposal of the depositor who may keep the filing in effect on all or part of the things in the box, whether he wants to keep the filing confidential or to be published, all in accordance with the same principles mentioned in Article (58). The only difference between the two filings is that things which are not requested to be filed shall be returned to the depositor(2) .

Article (61)

After the lapsed of the period of the first five years, and if the depositor requests to keep the filing confidential, the Director of the Bureau shall open the sealed box, take the requested duplicates with their particulars there from and put them all in a sealed envelope after authenticating each of the two copies, then the box shall be sealed again, to be returned to the depositor when necessary.

Article (62)

The open or confidential filing requested to be effected before or on the lapsed of the first five years shall remain for the period of twenty five years, starting from the date of the first filing provided for in Article (53). At the lapsed of these twenty five years or before its lapsed the depositor or those who have rights therein, may ask for extension of filing for another twenty five years.

Article (63)

At the beginning of the second twenty five years, the filing shall be declared as per the rules specified in Article (58) and onwards.

Article (64)

(Amended by Article (12) of the Law of 31 January 1946):

In case of lapsed of the first five years following the first filing and the depositor did not request either advertising the filed thing or extending the confidential filing, the Director of the Bureau shall open the box, and if the depositor does not ask for recovering it during the following month, the drawings and designs which may be of any benefit or use, shall be distributed among the industrial establishments in Lebanon in order to evaluate the benefit there from for schools of arts and industries. The name and address of the depositor shall be kept written on the things. Same distribution shall be effected on the drawings and designs, whose depositors do not request renewal of its filing after the lapsed of the twenty five year period, as well as the drawings and designs which become the property of the public after the lapse of twenty five years thereupon.

Article (65)

(Amended by Resolution No. 170, issued on 6 December 1937):

Whether the depositor requests or does not request advertisement on filing, the first filing, provided for in Article (53) necessitates the payment of the following fees: (1)

1- A lump sum of twelve Lebanese Liras. It shall not be possible to file more than one hundred drawings or designs in one application. This lump sum fee shall be decreased to six Lebanese Liras if the same person submits at one time many filing application for drawings and designs he invented or if he is the owner thereof; provided he always pays, for the first application, the fee of twelve Lebanese Liras. As for the person who submits many filing application at the same time but for different commercial shops or for different persons, he shall not benefit from this discount.

2- A fee of fifty Lebanese piastres shall be paid for each filed drawing or design. This fee shall be decreased to thirty Lebanese piastres if the number of filed drawings and designs is more than one hundred, and to twenty Lebanese piastres if the number is more than two hundred. Such discount shall be effected successively.

For example: If a person files four hundred and fifty printed designs for one shop, he shall pay the following fees:

Lebanese Liras

1) A lump sum of twelve LL 12

four lump sums each is LL 24

2) 100 fees, fifty piastres each 50

100 fees, thirty piastres each 30

250 fees, twenty piastres each 50

Total hundred sixty six Lebanese Liras one 166

Article (66)

In case advertising is not requested on filing, but is requested at some other time during the five years following the filing, the advertising request shall enclosed with the following fees, otherwise such request shall be considered null and void:

1- A lump sum of 12 Lebanese Liras.

2- A fee of one Lebanese Lira for each drawing or design wanted to be published if the number of drawings and designs is not more than fifty, and fifty Lebanese piastres for the number over the fifty.

The following fees shall be paid for the confidential filing application on the lapsed of the first five years period following the first filing:

- 1- A lump sum fee of 12 Lebanese Liras.
- 2- A fee of 3 Lebanese Liras for each drawing or design to be kept confidential.

As for the open filing application which is submitted on the lapsed of the first five years following the first filing, the fees mentioned in the preceding paragraph concerning keeping the filing confidential shall be paid.

Lastly, the following fees shall be paid for the filing extension application for a new twenty five year period after the lapsed of the first twenty five years:

- 1- A lump sum fee of 18 Lebanese Liras.
- 2- The fee of 6 Lebanese Liras for each filed drawing or design.

Article (67)

Advertising for a drawing or a design before filing even if such advertising is effected due to the sale of the product, shall not result in the lapse of the protection granted under this Resolution.

General Provisions

Article (68)

Names written in a way which distinguishes them from others, titles, nomenclatures, symbols, stamps, letters, protruding marks and drawings, small drawings and figures, in general, any sign of any kind intended to bring benefit to the consumer, the factory owner and the dealer, by distinguishing between things and showing the identity, source, origin of goods, and the industrial, commercial or agricultural product, or the products of forests and metals shall be considered as trademarks for factories or trade.

Article (69)

A trademark is optional unless there are legal provisions to the contrary

Article (70)

A trademark can be personal or common. Literary Professions Societies, provincial companies, and agricultural or industrial companies which are licensed by the government, may acquire the right to have a common trademark to protect thereby the quality of the industry of their goods, their source or origin, or their products. Members of these companies alone shall have the right to use this common trademark or label which is separate from the personal trademark which each of them may acquire for itself.

Article (71)

The trademark shall not contain any national or foreign symbols. It shall not include, as well, a word, signal or symbol which is revolutionary or in breach of the public order or sound and good discipline.

Chapter Two

Filing, Duration and Precedence

Article (72)

Personal ownership of a trademark shall not be claimed unless such a trademark has been previously filed in the Protection Bureau as per the provisions of Article (79) and subsequent articles thereto.

Article (73)

In case a person claims the precedence of his use of a trademark which is not filed, it is always imperative in such circumstances that he submits a written evidence thereof.

Article (74)

(Amended by Article one of Resolution No. 24 issued on 30 December 1926):

If a trademark legally filed does not cause an acknowledged true objection within the five years period following the filing, it shall not be possible to object afterwards to the first depositor concerning the right of ownership of this trademark due to precedence of its use, unless it is proved in written deeds that the depositor was not ignorant or unaware at the time of effecting the filing that the trademark belonged to the person who used it first.

Article (75)

(Amended by Article (2) of Resolution No. 84 issued on 30 December 1926):

Any person who proves, after the lapsed of the five years period mentioned in the preceding Article, that he has freely and continuously used the trademark prior to the filing, may keep that right of use but for the period of fifteen years only, starting from the date of filing. This right of use may be transferred with the transfer of the commercial establishment. The owner of this right may, in order to maintain his right, raise a legal claim for illegal competition.

Article (76)

(Amended by Article (3) of Resolution No. 84, issued on 30 December 1926 and Resolution No. 170 issued on 6 December 1937):

A filed trademark may be transferred by inheritance, sale and assignment with its price or free of charge, with or without the commercial establishment.

Any transfer of a filed trademark, in order to be a pretext or excuse against others as per the text of this Resolution, shall be notified to the Bureau. for each registration of a transfer of trademark a fee of five Lebanese Liras shall be paid, in case the trademarks purchaser requests registration within a period of one month starting from the date of effecting the sale (legal periods specified for remote place shall not be included in this period). Any delay in a registration request shall necessitate the payment of an additional fee of three Lebanese Liras for each two months (1) .

Article (77)

(Amended by Articles (11) and (12) of the Law of 31 January 1946):

Filing duration shall be fifteen years, which may always be renewed for subsequent duration of fifteen years each provided that the payment of the fees mentioned herein under is made.

The owner of the trademark or his proxy or agent shall submit a handwritten application on which duty stamps are affixed to the Director of the Bureau including all the following explanations, otherwise the application shall be considered null and void.

Article (79)

(Amended by Article (5) of Resolution 84 issued on 30 December 1926, and supplemented by Article (10) of Law of 31 January 1946):

The trademark owner or his agent shall send a handwritten application on which duty stamp is affixed to the Director of the Bureau, mentioning the following explanations, otherwise it shall be considered null and void:

The application shall be accompanied if possible with copy of the filing certificates which might have been given for this trademark abroad, or certificates of temporary acceptance in trade exhibitions and fairs.

Article (80)

(Supplemented by Article (6) of Resolution No. 84 issued on 30 December 1926):

Any filing application of any kind shall not be accepted unless the depositor pays the prescribed fee for, at least the first fifteen years. In case the depositor so wishes to secure protection to his trademark for thirty, forty five or sixty years or for any other period he shall expressly state that in his application and pays the corresponding fees there for.

Article (81)

(Amended by Article (6) of the Law of 31 January 1946):

The Director of Protection Department shall receive the application and attached documents, and examine them before deciding whether it is possible to accept the registration of the trade or industrial trademark under the provisions of Article (71). In case of non-acceptance of registration, the Director shall refer the file to the Minister of Commerce and Industry accompanied with a decisive report. The Minister may declare the acceptance or rejection of registration by a decision to be issued within fifteen days. Such decision is contestable in case of rejection before the State Consultative (Shura) council within thirty days from the date of notifying the registration applicant therewith.

Article (82)

(Supplemented by Article (10) of the Law of 31 January 1946):

In case the trademark proves to be legal, it shall be filed and deposited, and the Director of the Bureau shall enter in the filing register of trademarks the following data:

Time limits specified in Articles (127) and (128) for the pursuit of claims of imitation offense and misdemeanors related to commercial and industrial protection rights shall be applied in claims filed for damages inflicted upon works protected under this chapter.

Article (179)

(Included in Article (5) of Resolution 164 issued on 8 December 1938):

Any judicial resolution issued under this chapter, the court issuing it shall notify it to the Director of the Protection Bureau within eight days at most.

Article (180)

The imitated works coming from abroad shall be prohibited to enter the country, or even to pass through it or be stored therein. They shall be seized in any place no matter where they are found.

Article (181)

This Resolution shall supersede all previous legal provisions in this sense, particularly the Ottoman Law issued on 11 September 1872 concerning excellent writing, and the Law of Printing Houses issued on 10 January 1888, concerning provisions therein which are contrary to this Resolution.

Article (182)

(Amended by Articles (11,14 and 15) of the Law of 31 January 1946):

This Resolution shall be enforced in Lebanon without prejudice to the provisions of the existing and the future international conventions, as of the date of its publication in the official gazette.
